II. Semesters to Enroll in and Prescribed Duration of Study

1. Enrollment: September for the fall semester and February for the spring semester. Two semesters constitute one academic year.
2. Prescribed Duration of Study: 4 ~ 6 years for bachelor's degree programs; 2 ~ 4 years for master's degree programs, and 2 ~ 7 years for PhD programs.

The prescribed duration of study for students enrolled in the School of Chinese Medicine for Post Baccalaureate is 5 years (including clerkships in clinical medicine and internships in Chinese medicine), and students may extend the study period for another two years at most.

3. For bachelor's degree programs, applicants who graduated from foreign high schools (e.g. a five-year high school under the British education system) but did not complete the same prescribed duration of study as local high school graduates are required to earn at least twelve additional credits within the prescribed duration of study after being admitted to ISU, in order to be eligible for graduation.
4. ISU will examine applications supported by a junior college diploma or academic credentials equivalent to a college diploma, and such applicants may apply for credit transfer after being admitted as freshmen or transfer students. Affairs related to credit transfer, transferring to a higher grade level, and academic studies should be subject to the Regulations for Credit Transfer by Students at I-Shou University and the Academic Rules of I-Shou University. Students should apply for credit transfer in accordance with the amendments to the Regulations for Credit Transfer by Students at I-Shou University if the Regulations are amended after they have been admitted to ISU.

III. Qualifications for Application

1. Applicants should have a foreign nationality, have never acquired the R.O.C. nationality (*1), and do not have the status as an overseas Chinese student at the time of application.
2. People who have a foreign nationality, have resided overseas (*2) for an uninterrupted period of 6 years (*3) at the time of application, and satisfy the following requirements may apply for admission. Those who intend to apply for admission to the School of Chinese Medicine for Post Baccalaureate should have resided overseas for an uninterrupted period of 8 years.
 - (1) Having the R.O.C. nationality at the time of application, but having never held household registration in Taiwan since birth;
 - (2) Having had the R.O.C. nationality prior to application, but having lost the R.O.C. nationality for at least 8 years since the date on which a nationality revocation was issued by the Ministry of the Interior; and
 - (3) In either of the cases as referred to in the preceding two subparagraphs, those who have studied in Taiwan as overseas Chinese students and have been admitted via admission placement by the University Entrance Committee for Overseas Chinese Student should be excluded.
3. People who have a foreign nationality, have the right to permanent residency in Hong Kong or Macau, have never held household registration in Taiwan since birth, and have resided in Hong Kong, Macau or any other foreign country (*2) for an uninterrupted period of 6 years at the time of application may apply for admission. Those who intend to apply for admission to the School of Chinese Medicine for Post Baccalaureate should have resided overseas for an uninterrupted period of 8 years.
4. People who were citizens of mainland China, have a foreign nationality, have never held household registration in Taiwan since birth, and have resided overseas (*2) for an uninterrupted period of 6 years at the time of application may apply for admission. Those who intend to apply for admission to the School of Chinese Medicine for Post Baccalaureate should have resided overseas for an uninterrupted period of 8 years.
5. Foreign nationals who have studied in Taiwan through a selection by foreign governments, organizations or schools under the Education Cooperation Framework Agreement and have never held household registration in Taiwan since birth may apply for admission with prior consent of the Ministry of Education, R.O.C.
6. International students who have already been enrolled in any school in Taiwan by following any of the preceding rules are not allowed to apply for admission to ISU as a new student to Taiwan.
7. In accordance with the Ministry of Education's Letter No. Tai-Wen-Tzu 1010174503 dated September 19, 2012, Vietnamese applicants should provide a certificate of language proficiency in Chinese or English when applying for admission. For admission to a Chinese-taught program, an applicant should provide a TOCFL (Test of Chinese as a Foreign Language) certificate for Level 2 or above, or a certificate of completion of a Chinese program at Level 2 issued by the Taiwan Education Center. For admission to an English-taught program, an applicant should provide a TOEFL iBT score report (at least 26), a TOEIC score report (at least 375), or an IELTS score report (an overall band score of 3.0 or higher).

8. International students with a foreign high school graduation certificate or equivalent qualifications to those of the R.O.C. academic degree system may apply for admission to bachelor's degree programs at ISU; a bachelor's degree or equivalent qualifications for master's programs; and a master's degree or equivalent qualifications for PhD programs.
9. The assessment and recognition of foreign academic credentials should be conducted pursuant to the MOE Regulations Regarding International Students Undertaking Studies in Taiwan as well as the following rules:
 - (1) Academic credentials from mainland China: The MOE Regulations Governing the Accreditation of Schools in Mainland China should apply.
 - (2) Academic credentials from Hong Kong or Macau: The MOE Academic Credential Verification and Accreditation Methods Adopted in Hong Kong and Macao should apply.
 - (3) Academic credentials from other areas:
 - A. Academic credentials earned at overseas Taiwan schools or Taiwan schools in mainland China should be recognized as the same as those at domestic schools at an equivalent level.
 - B. Academic credentials earned at areas other than those mentioned in the preceding two subparagraphs should be assessed and recognized pursuant to the MOE Regulations Governing the Assessment and Recognition of Foreign Academic Records by Institutions of Higher Education. Notwithstanding the foregoing, academic credentials earned from schools or branches established in mainland China by foreign schools require a public notarization in mainland China and should be verified and examined by an institute established or appointed by, or through a private agency commissioned by the Executive Yuan, R.O.C.
 - (4) The assessment and recognition of academic credentials at an adequate level of education should be conducted pursuant to the MOE Standards for Recognition of Equivalent Educational Levels for University Admission.
10. The foreign high school, college or university where an applicant earned his/her graduation certificate, diploma or academic credentials must be officially recognized by the Ministry of Education, R.O.C. Please visit the "Database for the Reference List of Foreign Universities" (https://www.fsedu.moe.gov.tw/home_Eng.aspx) for more details.
11. People are not allowed to apply for admission to ISU if they have been expelled from any college or university in Taiwan due to improper personal conduct, poor academic performance, or crime commitment.
12. International applicants who intend to apply for transfer admission to any of the bachelor's degree programs at ISU should have already been enrolled in and studied at a college or university in Taiwan, and they should be subject to the criteria applicable to domestic transfer applicants. Those who have met the criteria will be admitted to a sophomore or junior class based on the qualifications review results. (No transfer application will be considered by the School of Chinese Medicine for Post Baccalaureate.)

Applicants who are found to have violated any of the aforesaid rules should be disqualified from admission or deprived of enrollment status, or the degree diploma issued should be revoked. ISU reserves the right not to issue any certificate to such students.

*1: Pursuant to Article 2 of the R.O.C. Nationality Act, a person should have the nationality of the Republic of China under any of the conditions provided by the following subparagraphs:

- (1) His/her father or mother was a national of the Republic of China when he/she was born.
- (2) He/she was born after the death of his/her father or mother, and his/her father or mother was a national of the Republic of China at the time of death.
- (3) He/she was born in the territory of the Republic of China, and his/her parents can't be ascertained or both were stateless persons.
- (4) He/she has undergone the nationalization process.

*2: The term "overseas" refers to countries or areas other than mainland China, Hong Kong, and Macau. The term "an uninterrupted period of residency" means that an individual should stay in Taiwan for no more than a total of 120 days per calendar year.

*3: The number of years is calculated until the beginning date of the semester of admission (February 1st or August 1st).

VI. Acceptance

ISU's Office of Academic Affairs will conduct a preliminary examination after receiving admission applications, and applicants who have passed the preliminary examination will advance to a second review. Applicants may be notified of taking a test on professional subjects or language proficiency, if necessary. Successful applicants will be notified of registration and enrollment after the application results have been approved by ISU's Admissions Committee.

VII. Notification of Application Results

1. A formal notification will be sent to all applicants individually.
2. Under no circumstances will the acceptance letter guarantee the issuance of a visa, which should be approved and issued only by the local R.O.C. diplomatic mission.

VIII. Registration and Enrollment

1. If any information provided by an applicant or included in the application packet is found to have been counterfeited, actually owned by another person, or tampered with, the applicant should be denied admission. If such an applicant has enrolled at ISU, his/her student registration should be canceled and no certificate issued. If he/she has graduated from ISU, the degree awarded will be nullified and the diploma revoked.
2. A complete registration packet will be sent to successful applicants together with a formal notification. Please follow the instructions to pay the tuition and other required fees and to complete the necessary registration process. Failure to complete the registration process will result in refusal to enroll at ISU. Upon registration, successful applicants should submit the passport, a photocopy of the diploma verified by the local R.O.C. diplomatic mission as a true copy of the original, and an official academic transcript. Failure to submit any of the above will result in refusal to enroll at ISU.

3. When applying for a student visa, successful applicants should submit a health certificate (including HIV test, positive measles & rubella antibodies, or certification of prophylactic vaccination; please only use the form provided by ISU) issued by a qualified hospital to the local R.O.C. diplomatic mission. Moreover, successful applicants should, upon registration, submit one copy of the health certificate to ISU's Health Section and take a group physical examination for freshmen as arranged by ISU. Please visit the website of the local R.O.C. diplomatic mission to see whether there is any specific form required for visa application.
4. Upon registration, newly-admitted international students should submit the proof of health and personal injury insurance, valid for at least six months from the date of arrival in Taiwan; the said insurance should be valid in Taiwan (the proof should be verified by the local R.O.C. diplomatic mission). Those who have not purchased any insurance may pay the insurance premiums to and request ISU to get the insurance on their behalf (only available for officially enrolled students).
5. Any matter not mentioned herein should be subject to the MOE Regulations Regarding International Students Undertaking Studies in Taiwan, the MOE Regulations Governing the Assessment and Recognition of Foreign Academic Records by Institutions of Higher Education, the MOE Regulations Governing the Accreditation of Schools in Mainland China, the MOE Academic Credential Verification and Accreditation Methods Adopted in Hong Kong and Macao, the Regulations for International Student Admissions at I-Shou University, and the resolutions adopted by ISU's Admissions Committee.

X. Scholarships

1. Taiwan Scholarship

International students may apply for the scholarship granted by the government of the Republic of China (R.O.C.) to the local R.O.C. diplomatic mission before arrival in Taiwan. For more information please visit: <http://english.moe.gov.tw/> → “Study in Taiwan” → ”Scholarships” → “Taiwan Scholarship.”

2. ISU International Student Scholarship:

Scholarship types and amounts are as follows:

- (1) The scholarship amount for new international students ranges between NT$40,000 and NT$175,000 per person. The scholarship amount will be equally divided by two and awarded in two separate semesters after being approved by the Scholarship Committee for International Students.
- (2) For continuing international students (excluding those granted or continuing to receive the scholarship for new international students), the minimum scholarship amount is NT$3,000 per person, up to an amount equal to the sum of the tuition and other required fees payable. The scholarship amount will be awarded in the semester of approval after being approved by the Scholarship Committee for International Students.
- (3) Scholarship recipients are under an obligation to do service-learning under the supervision of the Office of International and Cross-Strait Affairs. The Office will evaluate the recipients' performance on service-learning at the end of every semester, and the evaluation results will be important reference for the Scholarship Committee for International Students to consideration of applications for (continuing to receive) the scholarship.

- (4) Scholarship recipients should report to the Office of International and Cross-Strait Affairs and complete the registration process on the first day of school. The Office will deduct the tuition, other required fees, and accommodation fees from the scholarship amount, and then return the balance to the recipients, if any. If the scholarship amount, however, is less than the total fees payable, recipients have to pay for the difference.
- (5) If a new international student who is also a scholarship recipient will not live on campus during the first year of study for special reasons, he/she should not request ISU to give him/her the scholarship amount used to offset accommodation fees as mentioned above.
- (6) A scholarship recipient will not receive the scholarship if he/she 1) does not complete the registration process for the semester when the scholarship is awarded, 2) applies for deferral of admission, or 3) transfers to another school. A recipient will be asked to return the full amount of the scholarship awarded if he/she suspends the schooling or withdraws from ISU while ISU is in session. In addition, if a recipient returns to ISU after suspension of schooling, has obtained a personal conduct score of below 85 for the previous semester, has attendance rate below 70 percent (calculated until the 9th week of the semester) without compelling reasons, or has had a record of minor demerits or even severer punishment, he/she will be asked to return the full amount of the scholarship awarded in the current semester and disqualified from subsequent scholarships; to maintain his/her status as a student of ISU, such a student must pay up the tuition, other required fees, and/or dormitory fees previously offset by the scholarship.
- (7) The Scholarship Committee for International Students will review scholarship applications. Qualified applicants will be granted the scholarship for the first year of studying at ISU, and they have to reapply in the second year of studying here. For more information, please refer to the Regulations for International Student Scholarship at I-Shou University at: <http://oica.isu.edu.tw>.
