

I-SHOU UNIVERSITY

Safety Checklist of Water Heaters in Off-campus Housing

Name: _____ Student No.: _____

Dept. & Grade: _____

Address: _____

Date of Inspection: _____ Y _____ M _____ D

1. Please inspect the water heater by following the attached form. If there is any possibility of carbon monoxide poisoning in the off-campus housing, please take any of the following measures for the safety sake (only the measure has been adopted will the safety be ensured):
    - A. Requesting a qualified technician to properly reinstall the water heater outdoors.
    - B. Requesting a qualified technician to install a power-vented water heater so that incompletely combusted carbon monoxide will be vented out.
    - C. Replacing the traditional water heater with an electric water heater.
    - D. Which measure has been taken? _____ (Please fill in with A, B or C).
Date of Completion: _____
-

Inspector: _____

※Your care and assistance to students and their daily life are much appreciated.

Thank you for spending your precious time completing this checklist.

I-SHOU UNIVERSITY

Safety Checklist of Water Heaters in Off-campus Housing

Electric Water Heater		<input type="checkbox"/> Electric water heater → No threat of carbon monoxide poisoning and no broken wire → No need to complete the following parts (Qualified)
		<input type="checkbox"/> Electric water heater → No threat of carbon monoxide poisoning, but electric shock may occur due to broken wires. Please specify in the field of “Suggestion” and hand in this form to the Student Campus Life Guidance Section. The improvement and the date of completion of such case will be followed up by the Section.
		Suggestion:
Liquefied Petroleum Gas or Natural Gas		<input type="checkbox"/> The water heater is installed outdoors → No threat of carbon monoxide poisoning (Qualified)
	Installed at the balcony	<input type="checkbox"/> ( No windows around the water heater and the air is well-circulating) → No threat of carbon monoxide poisoning → No need to complete the following parts (Qualified)
		Windows around the water heater and the air cannot circulate freely when the windows are shut.
		Ventilation
		<input type="checkbox"/> Balcony windows are always open → No threat of carbon monoxide poisoning → No need to complete the following parts (Qualified)
		<input type="checkbox"/> Balcony windows are seldom open → Potential threat of carbon monoxide poisoning → Please specify in the field of “Suggestion” and hand in this form to the Student Campus Life Guidance Section. The improvement and the date of completion of such case will be followed up by the Section.
		Suggestion:

	Installed indoors	Does the student have a vent pipe connected to the indoor installed water heater to vent out incompletely combusted carbon monoxide: <input type="checkbox"/> Yes → No threat of carbon monoxide poisoning → No need to complete the following part (Qualified) <input type="checkbox"/> No → Considerable threat of carbon monoxide poisoning → Please specify in the field of “Suggestion” and hand in this form to the Student Campus Life Guidance Section. The improvement and the date of completion of such case will be followed up by the Section.
--	--------------------------	---

Wish you all the best!

Office of Student Affairs

I-Shou University