Guidelines on Dormitory Cadre Scholarships at I-Shou University

Ratified and promulgated by the President on September 24, 2014

- I. The Guidelines on Dormitory Cadre Scholarships at I-Shou University (hereinafter referred to as “the Guidelines”) are made as the legal basis for awarding the dormitory cadre scholarship (hereinafter referred to as “the scholarship”) to dormitory cadre members, in order to praise their performance, to encourage them to learn how to handle public affairs, and to improve the quality of life in dormitories.
- II. All dormitory cadre members (hereinafter referred to as “the cadre members”) are subject to the Guidelines. Any cadre member who is dismissed during the semester will not be evaluated, and those who have not served for a minimum of two months will be evaluated separately. The scholarship will not be awarded to those who encounter either of the situations mentioned above.
- III. The cadre members are required to complete the training and activities held during the academic year and to fulfill their duties well. Those who have served for a minimum of one full semester and meet any of the requirements as referred to in Provision 5 will be awarded the scholarship.
- IV. The cadre members are required to abide by the Rules of Selection and Training of Dormitory Cadre Members as well as the applicable dormitory rules. The scholarship will be awarded based on their rankings in the semester.
The scholarship will be awarded to the cadre members based on the following rankings, and the scholarship will be remitted to their personal bank accounts:
  1. Dorm managers:
    - a. Ranking A+: NT$19,000 per person.
    - b. Ranking A: NT$17,000 per person.
    - c. Ranking B: NT$15,000 per person.
  2. Resident assistants:
    - a. Ranking A+: NT$13,000 per person.
    - b. Ranking A: NT$11,000 per person.
    - c. Ranking B: NT$9,000 per person.
- V. The scholarship is sponsored by the annual budget planned by the Office of Student Affairs.
- VI. The Guidelines become effective on the third day of promulgation after being adopted by the University Administration Council and ratified by the President. The same procedure applies to any amendments to the Guidelines.
