

Regulations for Selection of Distinguished Alumni of I-Shou University

Adopted on June 23, 2010 at the ninth meeting of the University Administration Council in the second semester of the academic year 2009

Ratified and promulgated by the President on July 16, 2010
Amendments to Article 2 and 5 ratified and promulgated by the President on May 15, 2012

- Article 1 The Regulations for Selection of Distinguished Alumni of I-Shou University (hereinafter referred to as the “Regulations”) are enacted to select and praise alumni who have had remarkable achievements or made concrete contributions to the University, the society or the country, enhance the University’s reputation, and set an example to and encourage the other graduates and students.
- Article 2 The Award Committee of Distinguished Alumni (hereinafter referred to as the “Committee”) is organized by the University and composed of the following members: President, vice presidents, Dean of Academic Affairs, Dean of Student Affairs, Dean of General Affairs, Dean of Research and Development, Director of Career Development Center, Secretary-General, college deans, Chairperson of ISU Alumni Association, one alumni representative, and one disinterested party. The President also takes over the chairmanship.
- Alumni who are nominated as distinguished alumni are not allowed to be members to the Committee.
- Article 3 A quorum of at least half of total membership will be required to validate a meeting. A decision on winner selection or revocation of winnership shall not be made unless more than two-thirds of the members present vote in favor of the proposal, while a decision on any other issues shall not be made unless more than half of the members present vote in favor of the proposal.
- Article 4 Nominees for distinguished alumni shall be the ones who have made remarkable academic contributions, performed brilliantly on service or had other achievements, and set an example to any other graduates and enrolled students of the University. The categories of distinguished alumni are as follows:
1. Academic Excellence: being engaged in academic research, innovation or invention, performing brilliantly on international competitions, or being conferred an award by the country;

2. Service Excellence: being publicly praised by government agencies, being recognized for long-term contributions to public welfare, or having remarkable achievements while taking over an important position in a government agency or the private sector;
3. Others: having special contributions other than those referred to in the preceding two subparagraphs, such as contributions to the University's reputation, administrative development, teaching services, research and development or innovative measures as well as donations to the University.

Article 5 A nomination application shall not be submitted without a nominee's prior consent. Convincing evidence shall be clearly stated on a nomination application, and supporting documents submitted.

Any of the following units or persons is eligible to file a nomination application:

1. administrative and academic units of the University;
2. ISU Alumni Association;
3. the head of the unit/agency/organization where a nominee works for; or
4. at least fifteen alumni of the University signing for nomination

Article 6 The total number of winners in all three categories is one to three generally, and the Committee reserves the right to increase or decrease the number of winners, or decide whether to select distinguished alumni in a given year after taking into consideration all relevant factors.

Article 7 Winners of the Distinguished Alumni Award will be publicly praised, and conferred a medal and a certificate of merits on the University's anniversary, and their achievements will be published in the University's e-papers and publications.

Article 8 If any winner of the Distinguished Alumni Award does anything harmful to the University's reputation or anything disgraceful, his/her winnership will be revoked as decided by the Committee.

Article 9 The Regulations become effective on the third day of promulgation after adopted by the University Administration Council and ratified by the President.

Note: In the event of any disputes or misunderstanding as to the interpretation of the language or terms of these Regulations, the Chinese language version shall prevail.