

IBA Curriculum Map

Applied to 2015 AY Cohort

Educational objectives
Cultivate future managers and leaders with an international mindset, cross-cultural communication skills, broad professional knowledge, skills and abilities with a capacity to create innovative solutions to address business problems, challenges and opportunities.

IBA

Core Competencies: Solve a business problem with professional management knowledge/ Communicate among various cultural identities, articulate the importance of values, and utilize diversity/commonality/ View problems from multiple perspectives; generate and plan a wide array of creative, innovative and feasible solutions/ Understand the use of technology to enhance decision-making and/or resolve a business challenge

Basic Abilities: Ability to develop morality and commitment to work as well as environmental and social concerns/Ability to plan one's career, collaborate and communicate with others, and promote oneself/ Ability to accommodate cultural diversity, respect the law and pursue lifelong learning

IBA

Graduate Program: Graduate program within Taiwan and abroad.

Career Path: Junior level manager/ Marketing executive/ Human resources executive/ Project manager/ Sales person/ Secretary/ Administrator.

